Section 1. It is hereby made the duty of the Registrar of Vital Statistics, Board of Health, Baltimore City, to procure the necessary blanks for the births which have occurred, under the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the session of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one, chapter one hundred and sixty-seven, and shall have printed on the same the following words, to wit: "Section 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Registrar of Vital Statistics, Board of Health, Baltimore City, to ascertain the full name of each child, if any, and have the same entered in the certificate of birth, the full name and occupation of its parents, the date and place of birth, the number of the child born of the mother, whether the first, second, third or other child, and the full name and post office address of the physician, midwife or other person who shall attend upon the mother at the birth of any child, and shall set forth in the certificate of birth whether the child was born alive or dead, and if dead, whether it was a stillborn child, or a child that died during birth, or after birth, and if after birth, how long it lived; and in case there was no physician, midwife or other person in attendance upon the mother at the birth of any child, then the father, mother or other person who shall have been cognizant of the facts required to be stated in the certificate of birth shall be required to make and sign the certificate of birth, and the same shall be delivered, duly signed by the proper person, to the Registrar of Vital Statistics, Board of Health, Baltimore City, at the office of the said Registrar, or to such person as he may appoint to receive the same, within ten days after the birth of any child. And no other person shall be required to make and sign the certificate of birth, or to deliver the same to the Registrar of Vital Statistics, Board of Health, Baltimore City, or to such person as he may appoint to receive the same, as aforesaid, unless the father, mother or other person who shall have been cognizant of the facts required to be stated in the certificate of birth shall neglect or refuse to make and sign the certificate of birth, and deliver the same to the Registrar of Vital Statistics, Board of Health, Baltimore City, or to such person as he may appoint to receive the same, as aforesaid, within ten days after the birth of any child. And it shall be the duty of the Registrar of Vital Statistics, Board of Health, Baltimore City, to see that the certificate of birth is made out and delivered as required by this section, and immediately thereafter to enter the same in a book to be kept for that purpose, and to report its birth to the Commissioner of Health of Baltimore City, and any such person or persons who shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to the fine of ten (10) dollars for each offence, to be recovered as other penal forfeitures are recoverable

...this schedule shall contain all the information required by the Commissioner of Health. This schedule shall be filled out by the attending physician or midwife, if there be one in attendance upon the mother, and if not, then by the father, mother, householder or owner of the premises where the birth occurs, within five days after the birth; and the same can be ascertained; and if there be no physician or midwife in attendance, then the first child born of the same mother shall be reported within five days after the birth of such child. Every stillborn child shall be reported in the manner above required for living children, and a certificate of birth shall be filed for every stillborn child. No certificate of birth shall be required in the case of any child born dead which is unformed or which shall have been delivered before the completion of the seventh month of gestation. The certificate of birth required by this section to be filed with the Commissioner of Health shall contain the following items, viz.: The full name and occupation of the parents of such child, if legitimate, and the full name and occupation of the mother if illegitimate; the color of the parents; the number of children born to the mother, including the present birth, and the number now living; the date of birth of each child, and the sex of each child; the place of birth of each child, specifying the street and number of the house, if in a city; the full name of the physician or midwife in attendance upon the birth, and his or her residence address. The certificate of birth required by this section to be filed with the Commissioner of Health shall be signed by the person reporting the birth, who shall state his or her residence address. Such certificate of birth shall be filed with the Commissioner of Health within five days after the birth occurs. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Health to furnish, without charge, to every physician, midwife or other person required to report births, the blank forms necessary for such reports, and to supply additional forms as the same may be required. Any physician, midwife or other person who shall refuse or neglect to report, as herein provided, any birth at which he was present or in attendance, or any stillborn child of the reporting of which he has charge, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each offense. All fines imposed and collected for violations of the provisions of this section shall be paid into the treasury of the Board of Health. Any such person or persons who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay a penalty of ten dollars, to be recovered as debts of like amount are recoverable. register of such births. It shall be the duty of the Registrar to furnish to midwives and physicians, upon application, blank forms for the return of births required by this section to be registered, and to instruct them in the proper method of making such returns. Every midwife or physician who shall have attended upon a birth shall obtain a list of the names authorized by the parents of the child, if any shall have been conferred, and shall certify to the same, and return such list to the Registrar of Vital Statistics of the Board of Health. The certificate shall set forth as far as the same can be ascertained the full name, sex, color, date and place of birth, and the number of the child if born alive at a single birth, or if one of twins, triplets, or other plural births, and shall be delivered or transmitted by mail to the Registrar within ten days after the birth. In case the birth of any child shall occur without the attendance of a physician or midwife, then the parent or parents of such child shall report the birth to the Registrar within the period above required, and in default thereof shall be subject to the penalty provided in this section for the violation of the provisions of this section in cases where no attendance upon the mother, the Commissioner of Health may require the testimony of any person who shall have been present at the birth of any child to report his or her knowledge of the facts required to be reported by the parents of such child, and may enforce the attendance of such person for that purpose by the same process as is provided by law for enforcing the attendance of witnesses before the Criminal Court of Baltimore; and any such person who shall neglect or refuse to appear and report as required by the Commissioner of Health shall be subject to the penalties provided by this section for the violation of the provisions of this section in cases where no other penalties are prescribed. Any midwife or physician who shall neglect or refuse to make the return required by this section shall be subject to the fine of ten dollars for each offence. Any person who shall wilfully make a false return of any birth required to be registered under this section, or who shall wilfully make a false statement in relation to any matter required to be reported to the Registrar of Vital Statistics, shall be subject to the penalties provided by this section for the violation of the provisions of this section in cases where no other penalties are prescribed.

Rule 2. The certificate of birth of each child shall be filled out by the attending physician, midwife, or other person in attendance upon the mother at the birth of such child, if any shall have been employed in such case; otherwise by the father or mother of such child, or the householder or owner of the premises where the birth occurred, or the manager or superintendent of any institution where the birth occurred, within five days after such birth occurs. The certificate shall state the full name, color, sex, and place of birth, and the full name, residence, and occupation of the parents of such child, and the number of children born to the mother, and the number now living. It shall be delivered to the undertaker employed to bury the body of such child, or to the person having charge of the burial, who shall deliver the same duly filled out and signed by the proper person to the Registrar of Vital Statistics, or his authorized agent, within ten days after the birth occurs. No undertaker or other person shall inter or remove the body of any child for burial or removal beyond the limits of Baltimore City, unless the certificate of birth of such child has been delivered to the Registrar of Vital Statistics, or his authorized agent, as required by this rule. No undertaker or other person shall inter or remove the body of any child for burial or removal beyond the limits of Baltimore City, unless the certificate of death of such child has been delivered to the Registrar of Vital Statistics, or his authorized agent, as required by the rules governing the registration of deaths. No undertaker or other person shall inter or remove the body of any child for burial or removal beyond the limits of Baltimore City, unless a permit for such interment or removal has been issued by the Registrar of Vital Statistics, or his authorized agent, as required by the rules governing the registration of deaths. Any physician, midwife, or other person in attendance upon the mother at the birth of any child, or any undertaker or other person who shall violate any of the provisions of this rule, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars for each offense.

By order of the Commissioner of Health, in the manner ruled within the period above required, and every person who shall violate any of the provisions of this rule shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars for each offense. This is a certificate required under the Act of Assembly of 1890, Chapter 123, to have occurred under the care of a physician or midwife, and to be registered with the Board of Health of Baltimore City. Any person who shall have charge of any child, if any shall have been born, and shall neglect or refuse to report the birth of such child, or to furnish the full name and occupation of the parents, the date and place of birth of the child, and such other information as may be required by the Board of Health, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than ten dollars for each offense. The certificate of birth shall be delivered, duly signed by the physician or midwife in attendance, to the parent or guardian of such child, or to the person having charge of the child, within ten days after the birth of any child born in a city or town where a Board of Health is established, and if no physician or midwife was in attendance, then the certificate shall be signed by the parent or guardian of such child, or by the person having charge of the child, within ten days after the birth of such child. Every certificate of birth shall contain the full name of the child, if any shall have been given at the time of registration, the full name and occupation of the parents, the date and place of birth of the child, and such other information as may be required by the Board of Health. Any person who shall neglect or refuse to report the birth of any child as required by this section, or who shall refuse to furnish the information required, and which he may have in his possession, or can reasonably obtain, concerning any birth, or who shall report any false information, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than ten dollars for each offense. The certificate of birth shall be delivered, duly signed by the physician or midwife in attendance, to the parent or guardian of such child, or to the person having charge of the child, within ten days after the birth of such child. Every certificate of birth shall contain the full name of the child, if any shall have been given at the time of registration, the full name and occupation of the parents, the date and place of birth of the child, and such other information as may be required by the Board of Health. Any person who shall neglect or refuse to report the birth of any child as required by this section, or who shall refuse to furnish the information required, and which he may have in his possession, or can reasonably obtain, concerning any birth, or who shall report any false information, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than ten dollars for each offense. The certificate of birth shall be delivered, duly signed by the physician or midwife in attendance, to the parent or guardian of such child, or to the person having charge of the child, within ten days after the birth of such child. Every certificate of birth shall contain the full name of the child, if any shall have been given at the time of registration, the full name and occupation of the parents, the date and place of birth of the child, and such other information as may be required by the Board of Health. Any person who shall neglect or refuse to report the birth of any child as required by this section, or who shall refuse to furnish the information required, and which he may have in his possession, or can reasonably obtain, concerning any birth, or who shall report any false information, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than ten dollars for each offense. The certificate of birth shall be delivered, duly signed by the physician or midwife in attendance, to the parent or guardian of such child, or to the person having charge of the child, within ten days after the birth of such child. month, and shall set forth as far as the same can be ascertained the full name of each child, of either sex, born alive, the number of such child born of the mother, the sex and color of such child, the day, month and year of birth, and the name, residence and occupation of its parents. In the event of the birth of twins, triplets, or other plural births, the interval between the first and second births, and between the second and third births, shall be stated. Such certificate shall be signed by the practitioner in attendance upon the birth of any child or by the undertaker who shall have been employed to inter the remains of any child where no other certificate of such birth shall have been presented to the office of the Commissioner of Health, and no other certificate of such birth shall be received at said office after the expiration of ten days from the date of birth, unless the same shall be accompanied by a certificate of a physician or midwife in attendance upon the mother (when such attendance was required), and stating the reason why the certificate of birth was not presented within the time above required, and shall be verified by the oath of such physician or midwife before a notary public or justice of the peace. If a child is born dead, or dies before the third day of existence, without having been baptized, the fact shall be stated in the certificate, and if such child has been interred without the attendance of a physician or midwife, the undertaker employed to inter the remains of such child shall report its birth to the Commissioner of Health, in the manner above required, and shall state the reason why a certificate of birth was not presented by the attendant. Any person who shall hereafter fail to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to the fine of ten (10) dollars for each offense, to be recovered as debts of like amount are recoverable.
